

HENDERSON GOLD LEAF

THURSDAY, NOV. 30, 1911.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Baptist church Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Rev. C. J. Thompson will preach Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the First Baptist church.

Mr. H. Thomason has a pear tree that is now bearing its second crop. The pears are as well developed as the first crop and are beginning to ripen.

Mr. D. Y. Cooper has been appointed a delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress which will hold its eighth annual convention in Washington December 6-8.

The Henry L. Wyatt Camp will hold its last meeting of the year next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the Kings' Daughters' Hall. The meeting will be of much importance to the members and all are requested to be present.

The following changes took place in the Seaboard Air Line schedule last Sunday: No. 38 arrives at 1:11 p. m., No. 66 arrives at 1:37 p. m., No. 30 at 6:29 p. m., Oxford train at 6:30. The schedules of other trains remain unchanged.

The Farmers' Union is about the only force that can really accomplish anything in the way of getting more money for cotton and the sooner the farmers realize this and go to work earnestly along that line the sooner will the problem be solved.

In the presence of only a few relatives and friends, Mr. Peter Gill and Miss Willie Buchan, two well known and prominent young people of this county, were married Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. Robert Troxler, a visiting minister to the Methodist Protestant Conference, officiated. The marriage was quite a surprise to the friends of the couple.

Thanksgiving services will be held at Holy Innocents church at 11 o'clock. There will be special decorations, music and sermon for that occasion. The week following will be the first week in Advent, during which time there will be special services for men held at this church. The services will be twenty minutes in length beginning at 12 o'clock each day. A cordial invitation is extended to all men to attend.

The little label on your paper each week shows the date to which your subscription is paid. Have you noticed it lately? If it shows that your time has already expired or that you are in arrears, send in your renewal together with what you are due on back account, and along with it your vote for your favorite contestant. We hope all our subscribers who have not already done so will make it a special point to attend to this matter during the next few days, and your kindness will be very greatly appreciated by the publisher.

Mr. J. C. Pate, who works at the garage, was badly burned in an accident Sunday afternoon about 6:30 o'clock. He was making a fire in the stove at the garage to keep the cars from freezing. Some one had poured a quantity of kerosene or gasoline in the stove, which had run down to the bottom, and Mr. Pate did not know that there was already oil in the stove. He poured more on top of the coal and wood and set it afire, and when it reached the bottom of the stove the oil that had collected below exploded. Mr. Pate was standing very near and was badly burned in the face, eyes and mouth. He is suffering a great deal, but his burns are not considered serious.

South Henderson Baptist church will be as neat and as well arranged church as there is in town when the new Sunday school rooms, which are now being built, are completed. This addition will accommodate one hundred more pupils. The Sunbeams rendered a very attractive program last Sunday afternoon. The children recited and sang their pieces well, and showed that their leader, Miss Eva Spruill, had done her work with much credit. The entire Sunday school and church are busy making preparations for Christmas and Santa Claus, and it is hoped that the new addition to the church will be completed for the Santa Claus reception.

Cokesbury News Notes.

Miss Lillian Edwards has returned home from a visit to relatives at Norfolk.

Miss Annie L. Edwards has returned home from a visit to relatives at Richmond.

Miss Bettie Edwards has been very sick for several days and her friends hope that she will soon recover.

The farmers in this community have been quite busy the past few weeks getting their corn hauled up and shucked. Nearly every day some one in the community gives a dinner or supper to a number of their neighbors who come and help shuck corn. They enjoy these good suppers and good times.

The farmers in this section are beginning to realize what it means to make a living at home and to not depend upon a supply company to furnish their living from the stores. There have been good crops of corn harvested in the past two weeks, even much better than the farmers were expecting. A good deal of small grain has been sown and lots of wheat is now being sown. The rainy weather has hindered this work some.

Picture Showing Price of Cotton.

The little picture in the show window of E. G. Davis & Sons Company's store, showing the prices of cotton in 1861 and 1911, has attracted much attention. The little lady, 1861, has on a full dress of cotton with wide skirt and five frills. The price of cotton then was 31 cents per pound. Miss 1911 wears a wool dress, silk stockings, kid gloves with only a cotton collar when cotton is only 9 cents. 1911 is no larger around the bottom of the skirt than 1861 is around the waist, in fact her skirt is the same number of inches at the bottom that Miss 1861's is yards around. When they meet and look at each other they both say, "How ridiculous you look, my dear!"

'Possum and Taters.

The Waxhaw Enterprise boasts that a successful farmer of that section has just sent it two of the largest sweet potatoes ever seen on that market. Now we wonder what disposition the handsome bachelor editor of The Enterprise will make of those potatoes. We would suggest to him that he might secure a large 'possum or two and give a 'possum and tater feast to his bachelor friends.

Won't Want to Go There.

An esteemed exchange says that "hell is a place where the forms are pied." We do not know from what source it gets its knowledge, but if it can establish its declaration as an indisputable fact, we do not believe that any printer would ever want to go there.

Always a Favorite.

(News and Observer.)

The Henderson Gold Leaf, always a favorite, is now enlarged to an eight page weekly. It looks as bright as the fine golden tobacco for which Vance is famous.

Art and Science.

"What a beautiful picture of an angel!" said the lady who was visiting the art gallery. "Yes," replied the aviation enthusiast, "but between you and me, those wings aren't practical."

Not only do we have to satisfy other people in order to make money, but we have to make money in order to satisfy other people.

Promising men are so numerous that it is a great pleasure to meet a man who has actually done something.

You may work out your destiny or it may work out itself, but the results are likely to be somewhat different.

It's love that makes the world go round, but it's marriage that keeps most of the inhabitants hustling.

It may be that you haven't more trouble than others, but that you have more time to think about it.

Before you can know a man by the company he keeps you must learn his company's opinion of him.

Any man who has time to think of his troubles has entirely too much spare time on his hands.

Card of Thanks.

On behalf of the Henderson Methodist Protestant Church and the Committee of Conference Entertainment, we desire to express hearty thanks to all the friends of our sister denominations for the hospitable entertainment of members of our Conference. Henderson always does these things well. It has never been done more pleasantly.

ANDREW J. HARRIS,
HENRY T. POWELL,
R. S. MCCOIN,
Committee.

To the Progressive Men of Henderson:

The opportunity is now presented you of putting your progressive spirit into practical use. The forestry committee desires the use of a team, two or three men, (or the cash) to assist in planting trees on Arbor Day. For the most progressive and practical man a tree will be named to which he will be given the privilege of training it in the way it should grow.

Chairman Forestry Com.

The number of regular 25c turkey dinners not limited. Dinner and supper will be served and beautiful Christmas presents a specialty. No admission fee charged.

Rabbit Hunting Record Smashed.

Correspondence of the Gold Leaf. Messrs. L. G. Shanks, P. J. and J. D. McMillan went rabbit hunting over in the Shanks neighborhood. They caught thirty-eight rabbits and four birds, the game in all weighing 100 pounds.

The McMillan boys also declare they have some 'possum dogs, too. One night last week they went out to see what they could do for Mr. 'Possum and in one hour's hunt they hand caught and bagged sixteen pounds of 'possum. The boys said that the dogs talked pretty that night, and they said that Frank and Dan are hard to beat when it comes to hunting 'possum or anything else in their line.

MADAM ELDON

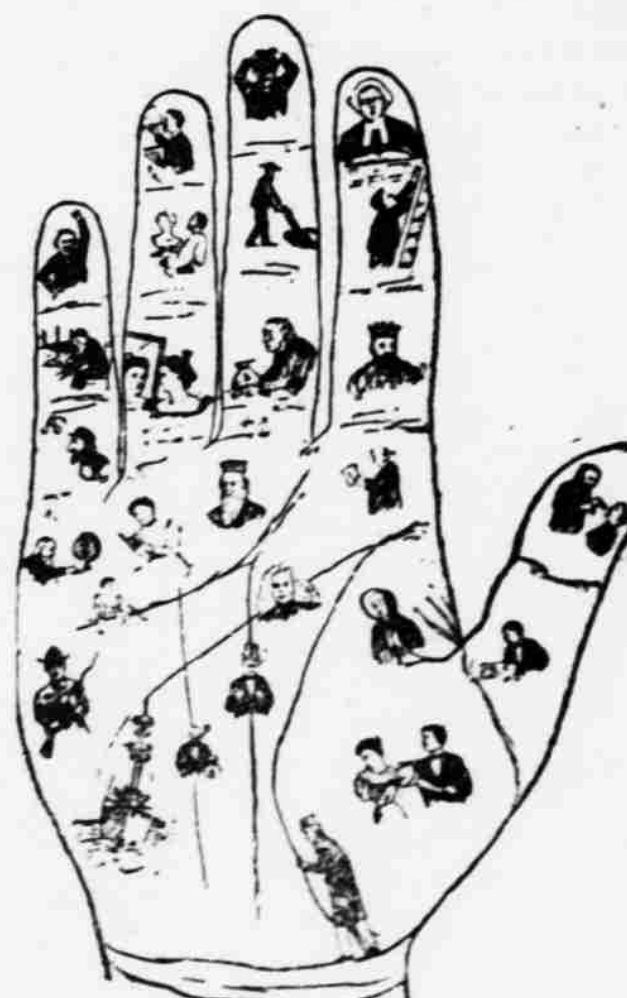

WORLD'S GREATEST PALMIST, MEDIUM & CLAIRVOYANT

Knowledge of the Future

Is Power For the Present

She Tells Your Name and, Also, the One You Will Marry.

Who reads your life from the cradle to the grave and is known from sea to sea as one of the best palmist in the world. During the Omaha Exposition she read the hand of President McKinley, and predicted that he would die by the hand of an assassin, which prediction came true. She, it was, who, while filling an engagement in Pittsburg, traced on the map the famous Beaumont, Texas, oil fields and located what has since proven to be the greatest oil fields in existence.

Palmist Locates Valuable Papers.

Madam Eldon's Success. The Palmist is Making Accurate Predictions Not Only as to the Past, but the Future—Mr. J. M. Cross' Recommendation.

The following letter from Mr. J. M. Cross, who is one of the best known citizens in Charlotte, will be read with interest by patrons and others of Madam Eldon whose work as a Palmist on West Fourth street has attracted so much attention during the several weeks:

"Madam Eldon: After consulting you and then asking you in regard to some valuable papers, which I thought were lost and the description of which you told me, where they were hidden so closely that I went home and, with the help of my wife, succeeded in finding them just as you described to me.

Yours respectfully,
J. M. CROSS.
